

Artist in Residence Program

586 Cynwood Dr.
Easton, MD 21601

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Artists in Residence are selected annually on the basis of applications and/or needs of the organization. The selection is made by an appointed Residency Committee. Applications should include the following:

- A completed application form.
The application form as PDF file is available at the web site: www.talbothospice.org
- A current curriculum vitae or professional resumé.
- A project description for your AIR residency. Please be as brief and concrete as possible.
- Four - Five (4-5) work samples in format i.e. photos or prints of work. (Samples will not be returned)
If the application contains more samples, five (5) samples will be selected by the Executive Director/designee and committee.
- Media artists may send one (1) CD or DVD.

Send your application by postal mail to the address below. Please label all enclosed material clearly with your complete name. Application materials are not returned.

The Executive Director or AIR designee will inform the selected applicant about the selection. The selection results will also be published on Talbot Hospice web site.
